Wallis is a journalist who has hosted five different TV talk shows on CKTV, SCN and Access 7 in Saskatchewan.

For 10 years she facilitated small business seminars throughout Saskatchewan on behalf of the Business Development Bank of Canada (BDC). Other seminar and speaking audiences include large corporations, professional groups, women's groups, and school children (after her return from a five-week UNICEF tour visiting street children projects in Columbia and Brazil).

She worked with Saskatchewan Education as a curriculum developer and consultant for two years. Prior to that Wallis taught elementary school in Saskatoon, England, Ottawa and Regina over a ten year period.

Her credentials include a Master's Degree in Education, a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Journalism and Communications and accreditation as a Certified Self-Talk trainer from the Institute of Self Talk, Scottsdale, Arizona.

Her book, Mr. Apple Discovers The Four Way Test, Four Questions That Dramatically Changed His Life will be available for purchase at the meeting. All book proceeds will go to support Israel.

Wallis and her five siblings were raised in a Christian home by loving parents. After leaving home she experienced troubled and traumatic times in her life. When she went her own way, her Heavenly Father was always there with open arms to receive her and welcome her back. You are invited to come to the meeting and hear her personal story and God's faithfulness and mercy in her life.
